Take Matters into Your Own Hands @ Your Library

Largo, MD - MakerSpace Spotlight and Do It Yourself (DIY) Research in EBSCO's Hobbies & Crafts Reference Center are the latest electronic resources of the Prince George's County Memorial Library System (PGCMLS). No 3D printer? No problem. You can still be a Maker. Take matters into your own hands using these new Library digital resources.

The MakerSpace Spotlight feature offers step-by-step instructions on diverse projects such as robotics, model building and needlecrafts. Spark your imagination by researching these additional DIY subjects: Kid's crafts, scrapbooking, collecting, performing arts, technology, gardening and more.

A Library customer had this to say about the DIY reference centers. "Wow! I just discovered the new Hobbies & Crafts Reference Center on the PGCMLS website," Lynn exclaimed. "I love to sew and quilt. I am always looking for new patterns and ideas. The Needlecrafts and Textiles section has everything that I need, including techniques and patterns for applique and quilting," she added. "It looks like there are a lot of other articles and ideas for many kinds of craft projects in this resource, too!"

Make your own discovery! Visit our website at www.pgcmls.info or stop by your local library, and start that MakerSpace or DIY project that you have always dreamed of doing. Be a Maker! Make your dreams come to life at your Library.
